Tina The Christmas Turkey

I ran into his office - it was a little separate office outside, you know, off of my main pit-area office - got to his desk, knelt down before it, felt like I won, and realized I have three devices, four pockets, and no idea which pocket I was supposed to put things. As the title suggests, the staff and the clef are the only subject matter in this lesson and are dealt with methodically using repetitive text, making the facts easy for a child to remember.
