After this apology, I must confess that I have still some remaining doubts. I was especially alert to the material and world-building aspects of Tawada's novel because recently, I attempted to plan a story starting in ; I had wanted to push past the sometimes lazy received wisdom of the usual American collapsitarian guys, and I ideally wanted to be able to have a logical story behind every object around my characters and everything they knew and thought. The Lure of the Map also wonder about early years: can we learn how violence is neuropsychologically mediated and develop a primary prevention by intervening before violent ideas become violent actions.
